DETAILS: Auburn Symphony starts the season with a stunning visual concert with talented Seattle artist Adrian Wyard previously featured with Holst's The Planets in spring of 2018. Auburn Symphony will perform Mussorgsky's epic Pictures at an Exhibition. "The Gnome", "Ballet of the Unhatched Chicks", "The Market" and more are brought to life with Wyard's visuals. Also featured is the overture to Ruslan and Ludmilla by Mikhail Glinka and Adam Schoenberg's Grammy®-nominated Picture Studies: a Pictures at an Exhibition for the 21st century. Before the concert, enjoy a free pre-concert talk about the program with Music Director Wesley Schulz and KING FM Host Dave Beck at 1:30 p.m.

In partnership between Auburn Symphony Orchestra and Interurban Center for the Arts, nearly 300 Auburn School District students will create art inspired by Mussorgsky's enduring work. The artwork will be on display in the lobby at the concert for all to enjoy.

Reserved seats can be purchased in advance or the day of the concert. Parking is free. This concert is sponsored in part by the City of Auburn.
